SENATORS FAVOR ARBITRATION

Seek Settlement of Panama Canal Tolls Controversy.

REQUIRES TWO-THIRDS VOTE

Senator O'Gorman, Leader of Forces Fighting Repeal of Exemption Act, Opposed to the Proposition to Submit the Dispute to an International Tribunal, but Many Senators Are Willing to Accept This Course.

Washington, May 19.-With the canal tolls exemption controversy nearing a vote, sentiment in the senate is growing in favor of an effort to substitute for the pending bill a resolution which would provide for the submission of the dispute between the United States and Great Britain to an international tribunal.

Although senators who have discossed this proposal are by no means sure that it will prevail when the time for a vote arrives, they say that many of their colleagues are willing to accept this course. It was said that Senator O'Gorman, leader of the forces fighting repeal, will not consent to arbitration, and the proposal undoubtedly will meet with vigorous opposition among senators on both sides of the issue.

It was pointed out, however, that before the house passed the repeal At a special meeting held Monday bill President Wilson was willing senators, two Republicans and one Democrat, added their voices to those who see in arbitration the best way out of the difficulty.

Senator Sutherland made a vigorous speech on the exemption repeal The annual tax levy of the board bill, asserting that arbitration is the one way to settle the dispute. On the Republican side it developed that Senators Lodge and Root. as well as others who are prominent in the fight for repeal, would favor senate would be required to pass an arbitration resolution

Those opposed to the idea pointed out that arbitration would mean a long delay, and that in the meantime the canal would be opened and operaed and many complications would arise, no matter what the decision of the court might be.

No effort apparently has been made on the Democratic side to sound out

Strike Now in Effect in the New Phone, Office 104. Buckeye Coal Fields.

Columbus, O., May 19 .- With 45,000 Ohio coal miners on a strike, officially declared by the district executive Bell 253 R. committee, efforts of the miners during the next week will be spent in trying to arrange wage agreements with individual operators on a basis of the miners' original demands.

Declaration of the strike was accompanied by an offer from John Moore, president of the Ohio mine 5 East Gambier street, Mt. Vernon, O workers, to meet with the operators of the Hocking district. This offer was contained in a letter to E. A. a disposition to agree on the mine-

Funds now in the treasury of district No. 6, comprising Ohio, will soon be exhausted by the payment of strike benefits amounting to $6 for every idle miner.

In a circular sent out from district headquarters here declaring the strike, an appeal was made for miners to be patient and to endure the privations of idleness and no pay until officials could secure a just wage scale. This scale is 71 3-7 cents a ton for pick-mined coal and 49.64 cents a ton for machine-mined coal. payable on the run-of-mine basis.
